C.L.Y.D.E. Corp. Anti-Violence Network

C.L.Y.D.E. Corp. is deeply concerned about the violence that is plaguing our inner city youth. Realizing this horrid catastrophe will not change without our young people having a positive alternative, C.L.Y.D.E. Corp. is that positive alternative.

Utilizing education as a catalyst to provide self-esteem through self-awareness, C.L.Y.D.E. Corp. seeks to teach our youth the value of self love. Once our youth collectively grasp the concept of love and self-respect, the violence, which is propelled by self-hatred, will end.

C.L.Y.D.E. Corp. Anti-Violence Network is working to create programs designed to expose our youth to occupational training, career planning and self-development workshops.

We are currently arranging a series of events for our young adults and their parents beginning on May 19, 2006 at several locations. Dates and locations will be announced in the near future.

These Anti-Violence Network events will conclude at the Anti-Violence Summit 2006 Concert on June 18, 2006 at the Liacouras Center, 1776 North Broad Street, Phila. , PA 19121. Performing live in concert will be T.I.

C.L.Y.D.E. Corp. is in need of your support to make the Anti-Violence Network Concert a spectacular, successful event. We are seeking sponsors who are concerned about our youth and elderly living in neighborhoods where peaceful civility is rare and who want to end the circle of violence.

We hope to ignite the consciences of the businesses, legislators and citizens within our society and inspire you to participate in our efforts.

Come join us!
